

LENI CHRISTINE JEBSEN

Certified Team Performance Coach & Leadership Trainer

Leni Chr. Jebesen is a Certified Organization & Relationship Systems Coach with a strong background within leadership- and team coaching, conflict resolution, personal development, facilitation and training. She has coached leaders from North America to the Middle East as well as trained coaches all over the world. Her experience spans from working with global organizations to small family-owned companies, as well as with families and couples.

She is the founder of c-momentum, a Leadership- & Team Coaching company specializing in coaching leaders and teams to develop a high-performance culture based on trust, collaboration and accountability.

As a senior faculty member of Team Coaching International (TCI), Leni leads In-House Team Coaching programs, and the Master Class and Accelerated Learning Program of the TCI Certification Program.

As partner of Team Coaching Europe (TCE), Leni designs and executes team performance- and leadership development programs for TCE's global accounts.

With her straightforward way of being, she works in a warm, engaging and inspiring way to help leaders and teams stretch and challenge their limits to reach, and surpass, the goals they have set for themselves. Leni strongly believes in people's inherent potential, growth and development and is known for her ability to create an atmosphere of confidence, trust and courage.

Among others, some of the clients Leni has worked with in this manner are Staples Inc., Nestle Waters, Canon, Lego, Tieto, PWC, Tyco, Royal Canin, The Norwegian Police Academy, the Police District of Hordaland, the Norwegian Naval Forces Band, and the Municipality of Oslo.

While based in Bergen, Norway, Leni has a global reach. Along with having a vast network of clients and colleagues around the world, she has taken much of her work online, and has more than 5 years of experience working with leaders and teams in a virtual setting.

Prior to becoming a professional coach, Leni worked as a graphic designer in the Norwegian Navy and has an extensive background from various industries ranging from law, banking and real estate to sales, tourism and insurance.

She holds five internationally recognized coaching certifications: Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC), Professional Certified Coach (PCC), Certified Organizational- & Relationship Systems Coach (ORSCC), Certified Team Performance Coach (CTPC), and Officially Certified Narrative Coach. In 2011 - 2013, Leni studied Social Education and Occupational Therapy at VID Sandnes in Norway, where she added the following programs to her toolkit and competencies:

Aggression Replacement Training, Family ART, Social Perception Training, Motivational Interviewing, Theoretical Education in Psychology and Research Methodology, as well as Social Perception Training.

Leni's big passions are Argentine Tango, great food and travelling. She is an expert on bridging different worlds and incorporating elements of this into her work, bringing added value and a deeper level of personal leadership into play.

Leni is affiliated with the International Coach Federation (ICF) as a Mentor Coach, and with Europe's leading casting agency, Spotlight, where she coaches actors and actresses pro bono.
